

Alan Mishlove

Senior District Accountant
PFM Group Consulting LLC

Alan joined PFM in 2019 as a senior district accountant. Previously, he worked at Fishkind & Associates where his responsibilities included managing the financial and accounting activities of Community Development Districts (Special Districts of the State of Florida), and any associated Master Homeowner Associations. In that role, he provided all accounting activity – Accounts Payable, Accounts Receivable, General Ledger, Audit, Banking, Financial Reporting to various State and Federal entities, and presenting the financial results at monthly board meeting.

Prior to PFM and Fishkind, Alan worked at Severn Trent in their District Management Business where he managed the Accounts Payable, Accounts Receivable, and Budgeting Units. At The First National Bank of Chicago, he managed three units related to Property Management including Fixed Assets, Occupancy, Capital Expenditures, Rent Expenses and Area Rental Rate development, Rent/Occupancy analysis and reporting, and Budget variance analysis. Alan also had additional work experience at the Alternative Schools Network in Chicago where he was the Fiscal Director, and was responsible for all financial and accounting activity; at the Jewish Community Centers of Chicago, where he was the Director of Financial Operations; and at the Council for the Jewish Elderly in Chicago where he was the Director of Budgets, Reporting, and Cost Accounting.
