

Bradley Remig

Managing Director

PFM Financial Advisors LLC

Brad Remig joined PFM in 1990 and is a managing director in the Harrisburg office. His main area of responsibility is to provide financial advisory services to local governments in Pennsylvania, with a focus on school finance and water and wastewater finance. Brad serves as project manager to over 100 school districts, authorities, municipalities and counties. His areas of expertise lie in the areas of new money bond issues, interest rate swaps, bank and bond pool loans, and current period refundings. He has completed hundreds of transactions related to new money capital financing, existing debt refinancings, and debt restructurings. Brad also has extensive experience in the investment advisory strategy development and arbitrage rebate management fields, which was his specialty at PFM from 1990 to 1996.

Prior to joining PFM, Brad interned on the Corporate Bond Trading Desk at Salomon Brothers, Inc. in New York, and in the Investment Department of The Summit Trust Company, a commercial bank based in New Jersey. He also worked briefly with Financial Guaranty Insurance Company ("FGIC").
