

David Olson

Director

PFM Financial Advisors LLC

David Olson joined PFM in April 2014 and specializes in PFM's K-12 educational practice in California. He brings a wealth of industry experience, having spent nearly 30 years in public finance, primarily in the education sector. He assisted school districts throughout California to develop and implement long-term bond programs designed around transparency and sustainability.

Prior to joining PFM, David served as a managing director at KNN Public Finance, providing financial advisory services to dozens of medium and large school districts. He is skilled in school district finance, including general obligation bonds, tax and revenue anticipation notes (TRANS), certificates of participation, leases, tax subsidy and tax credit bonds. David also has experience with structure and pricing.
