

David Starr

Managing Director
PFM Asset Management LLC

David Starr is a Managing Director in the firm's Philadelphia office. Dave heads PFM's Stable Value business, and is also responsible for marketing the firm's Liquidity Management capabilities to institutional clients on a national basis. In these roles, Dave strategizes with clients to develop and implement capital preservation solutions.

David has 40 years of financial industry experience, including 10 years of corporate, international and private banking experience, having begun his career with Brown Brothers Harriman & Co.

David has worked extensively in the defined contribution marketplace, where he spent more than 22 years with stable value manager Dwight Asset Management Company. He helped lead the transition of more than $35 billion in assets in 2012 to Dwight's successor, Goldman Sachs & Co. He served as a managing director of both Goldman Sachs and Dwight.

David is a past board member of the Stable Value Investment Association, and currently serves as Trustee and Treasurer of the Shelburne Museum and as the Alternate Governor's Delegate to the Vermont Pension Investment Committee. He holds Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) Series 7 and 63 licenses.
