

Erick Winterkamp

Senior Analyst

PFM Financial Advisors LLC

Erick Winterkamp is a senior analyst based in the firm's Arlington office. He currently works in the firm's national utilities practice, where he supports the firm's engagements with some of the largest water, wastewater, gas and public power utilities in the country, including the District of Columbia Water and Sewer Authority, Orlando Utilities Commission, CPS Energy, San Antonio Water System, Nashville Electric Service, and the Great Lakes Water Authority. These engagements frequently include design and implementation of complex plans of finance for large capital programs, restructuring and refunding opportunity evaluation and execution, and credit analysis. Since joining PFM in 2018, Erick has participated on debt transactions totaling over $4.5 billion.

As part of his project engagements, Erick has provided financial advisory services to municipal governments, development authorities, and utilities throughout the country. His transactional experience includes advising on a mix of tax-exempt, taxable, and state / federally underwritten securities (State Revolving Fund Loans, WIFIA Loans, etc.)

Erick has accumulated experience in a variety of areas in public finance since beginning his career at PFM in the Virginia local practice, where he provided analytical and advisory support for a large and diverse base of state and local level clients such as Fairfax County, Fairfax Water, Hampton Roads Sanitation District and AlexRenew, amongst others.
