

Xaykham Khamsyvoravong

Director

PFM Financial Advisors LLC

Xaykham ("Xay") Khamsyvoravong is a director for PFM Financial Advisors. He joined PFM's financial advisory practice in 2023 and brings a results driven team-oriented approach, having served as an issuer, underwriter, commercial banker, and civic leader.

Immediately prior to joining PFM Xay worked with U.S. Pension Alliance on the use of asset transfers to improve the funding of public pensions and infrastructure. Over the course of his nearly two-decade career Xay has executed hundreds of infrastructure financings totaling over $2.5 billion, for projects ranging from highway systems to water utilities.

Civically, Xay has held multiple state and local leadership roles. He started his career as Deputy Chief of Staff to the Rhode Island General Treasurer throughout the 2008 market meltdown. At the municipal level, he served for nearly a decade as the Chairman of Providence Water, one of the largest water utilities in the Northeast. Most recently, he led Rhode Island Governor Daniel McKee's Transition Working Group on Transportation and Infrastructure.

Xay is a double graduate of Brown University earning a B.A. in International Relations and Masters in Public Affairs. Xay is also a licensed attorney in the States of Connecticut and Rhode Island, and graduated magna cum laude from Roger Williams University School of Law.

Contact

Keystone Plaza
100 Market Street
Harrisburg, PA 17101

KhamsyvoravongX@pfm.com
717.213.3856 office

Education

Bachelor of Arts in International Relations
Brown University

Masters in Public Affairs
Brown University

Juris Doctor
Roger Williams University
School of Law

Professional Designations or Licenses

Series 50

Started with PFM: 2023

Started in the Field: 2007