

John M. Murphy

Director
Munite LLC

John Murphy is a director of municipal investor relations on PFM's Munite team. John is responsible for bringing the "Munite Message" to institutional investor users and plays a big role in marketing Munite to municipal issuers. John is a PFM-wide resource on investor relations. John joined PFM in November of 2019 and works in the Philadelphia office.

Prior to joining Munite, John spent the majority of his career as a senior research analyst at Fidelity Investments. John covered several municipal sectors, including electric utilities, water/sewer utilities and gas prepayments. Prior to his time as a research analyst, John traded municipal, corporate and Canadian securities at Fidelity and JP Morgan. John is actively involved in the National Federation of Municipal Analysts and the Boston Municipal Analysts Forum, where he is the current President.
